WANT TO PUBLISH YOUR OWN BOOK?

You are welcome to publish your ideas through the AGS book series. On www.theags.org you can download a proposal form and other documents you need to make a proposal for publishing.

For further information, please contact series editor at MIT:

Dr. Joanne M. Kauffman Laboratory for Energy and the Environment Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge, Massachusetts, 02139, USA

E-mail: kauffman@alum.mit.edu

The work presented in the series draws mainly on results being carried out in the AGS: cutting edge research into emerging barriers to sustainable development, and methodologies and tools to overcome them.

The level of presentation should be for graduate students in natural, social and engineering sciences as well as policy and decision-makers around the world in government, industry, and civil society.

The AGS book series Science and Technology:Tools for Sustainable Development was launched by Springer in 2002.

The series provides timely acounts by authoritative scholars on cutting edge research in sustainable development.

It also presents a good overview of the results of AGS investment in critical areas of sustainability.

Students and researchers from the four AGS universities MIT, Chalmers, ETH and UT now get a 35 % discount on all AGS books published by Springer.

NEW BOOK!

Highway and Urban Environment #17

Proceedings of the 9th Highway and Urban Environment symposium S. Rauch, G.M. Morrison, A. Monzón (Eds.)

The Highway and Urban Environment symposium (HUES) was initiated by Professor Ron Hamilton at Middlesex Polytechnic (now University) in the early 1980s, and is now run by Chalmers University of Technology within the AGS.

The 2008 symposium (9HUES) was held in June at TRANSvT - Universidad Politécnica de Madrid, Spain to provide a professional and scientific forum on global examples of the science required to support pathways to a positive and sustainable future in the highway and urban environment.

This volume contains papers grouped by topic on sustainable mobility and management; air pollution: trace elements in the environment: urban water contamination, contaminated sites and treatment; urban climate and climate change. Due: October 2009 ISBN 978-90-481-3042-9 € 84.50 Hardcover, 430 p.
